

Perhaps it's time to fill in the blanks with regards to how history is taught in grade school and high school and the gaps that are left. Allow Canadians to tell their own stories of coming to Canada. I recently completed a piece on the Ugandan Asian expulsion and Canada's role in the crisis and was surprised how little people knew about this event. A link to a portrait series is provided in the link box below.