Peace FM: Voice of the South Peace

Founded in 1996, Peace FM is the first community radio station in Canada and shares studios with its sister station, CHET TV. Peace FM has offices in both Chetwynd and Dawson Creek.

Peace FM is a dynamic, highly creative and highly successful radio station specialising in community broadcasting in the South Peace. The Chetwynd Communications Society owns and operates both Peace FM and CHET TV.

Peace FM broadcasts at 94.5 FM in Chetwynd (CHET) and at 104.1 FM in Dawson Creek (CHAD) and can be heard at all times on <http://peacefm.ca/> throughout the world. It has regular listeners in the Peace and has many listeners.

News, weather, sports, regular contests and updates about local activities are delivered routinely by a youthful staff with energy and excitement.

Our commitment to Dawson Creek includes:

- (9) years of broadcasting the Dawson Creek Junior Canucks;
- The Theresa Gladue Show and Theresa's Country Show from Dawson Creek;
- Exclusive Coverage of the Dawson Creek Rotary Auction;
- Many activities including the opening of Pioneer Village and commercial events.

Peace FM regularly attends the Dawson Creek Trade Show.

PEACE FM is proud to be Peace River's Best Music Mix and play 19 local bands from the Peace. Four bands are from Dawson Creek.

Emergency bulletins are broadcast on Peace FM at the request of emergency agencies. Available 24 hours per day, we will deliver emergency broadcasts about road closures, evacuations, fires, spills, floods and emergencies impacting the Peace within minutes of being notified. This has happened over 600 individual times in our history!

PEACE FM has a Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/PeaceFMRadio> on line.
