

Consider the Internet a Prime Economic Driver.

Make Digital access as affordable and available as possible. Through the internet flows many things, increasingly value, including cultural value flows. Inform and support this flow, but do not restrict it. As we support youth, but do not force traditional values upon them, we must recognize the internet is our highway, of ideas. Let's make it great, democratic, accessible and affordable everywhere and to everyone in Canada.