

For Radio stations, the produced elements created should count towards the required 35% CanCon. This would allow broadcasters the ability to be more competitive playing a bigger variety of music. The economy & talent (writers/producers/voice over) at the stations will benefit.